

Writer-Director 🇧🇷 🏳️‍🌈

About

Queer LatinX writer-director, born and raised in a tropical island in Brazil named São Luís—the inspiration for my award-winning pilot Enchanted Isle.

Writing a sci-fi novel in high school and publishing it at 17 inspired me to pursue storytelling. I am currently transitioning from engineering to entertainment.

As a gay man raised in a machismo culture, I write about characters who navigate the struggle to be their authentic selves.

I'm passionate about telling stories that build bridges across cultures and across communities.
